GREEN INSPIRATION

INSPIRED

JULY 2010

WELCOME

The cold of winter has descended upon us and braving the outdoors can be pretty bleak, however the indoors have never been more inviting with the new and exciting indoor plant designs available.

In this issue we introduce an elegant new planter from Lechuza in our article 'What's New in Planters'.

In a first for Inspired, 'Specialist Advice Brings Results' illustrates some of the benefits of hiring Green Inspiration for your Interiorscape needs.

'Before and After' showcases Delissio Brasserie, where Green Inspiration designed, installed and now services the new landscaping of their outdoor dining area.

In future issues of Inspired we will review the latest in research of indoor plants from Australia and overseas and look at recent trends in plant foliage and colour.

We hope you enjoy reading this issue and look forward to providing you with more Inspired articles in the future.

Green Inspiration at Delissio Brasserie

WHAT'S NEW IN PLANTERS

Good design does not need to draw attention to itself in order to work. CILINDRO Loft, new from Lechuza, creates a subtle effect hallmarked by clear lines and unobtrusive colours. Its subtle pattern of lines is a stunning way to display any plant and a beautiful example of minimalist design.

If this product appeals to you please contact Green Inspiration and we would be happy to assist you.

SPECIALIST ADVICE BRINGS RESULTS

Bird of Paradise plant on installation

Indoor plants may have a reputation of being dusty, tired or even sad looking. This is a result of the people responsible for them having inadequate knowledge, time and/or interest in their maintenance.

Green Inspiration is passionate about indoor plants and has the specialist knowledge and expertise to ensure your plants are always healthy and vibrant. We provide the right design combinations and specialist maintenance techniques to ensure the plant chosen is ideal for the environmental conditions and thrives in the indoor space.

These pictures are an example of successful design, installation and maintenance service provided by Green Inspiration.

BEFORE & AFTER

Green Inspiration were asked by Delissio Brasserie to design and install a new landscape for their premises in Braddon.

The client required more privacy and protection from the elements to make the outside dining area more inviting.

Green Inspiration developed a design utilising tall charcoal planters with contrasting light coloured pots for impact. Plants chosen included Dianella 'Tas Red' and Magnolia 'Little Gem'.

The outdoor area of the brasserie now has impact from the street and is an inviting place to dine.
